

CONFERRING OF REWARDS

- Conferral of specified leniencies and privileges
- A decrease in the frequency with which the offender must undergo testing for drugs
- A decrease in the degree of supervision to which the offender is subject
- A change in the nature of the vocational training programs attended by the offender or a decrease in the total number of hours of community service that the offender is required to complete.

LIMITATION OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

Notwithstanding the right to appeal granted under Article 56 of the Maldivian constitution, there shall be no right to appeal against the Rehabilitation Order made by the Drug Court.

COMPLETION OF THE TREATMENT PROGRAM

When an offender successfully completes all parts of the treatment program that are required to be completed under the Rehabilitation Order, the Drug Court shall vacate the Rehabilitation Order and impose a final sentence on the offender as prescribed under the Drugs Act 2011.

FINAL SENTENCE

Where a final sentence is imposed on the offender, the initial sentence will become null and void. The final sentence can be imposed by making an order setting aside the initial sentence and releasing the offender unconditionally or conditionally on such conditions the Drug Court imposes.
